

The RTPI has put together an extensive package of NEW benefits to support our members personally as well as professionally.

Available exclusively to Chartered Members, Fellows, Legal Members and Legal Associates, this package adds even more value to your subscription and recognises your contribution to the Institute.

Adding value to your membership

The RTPI is committed to serving our members' needs throughout their careers. We want to serve you better and make your subscription go even further.

We have been able to leverage the size of our membership to bring you a package of business, financial, home and lifestyle, travel and personal discounts and services to help you get more from your membership.

You will be able to select from a wide range of benefits to custom-build a package of discounts that suits you. As part of your RTPI subscription, you can access most benefits completely free.

You can choose:

- + Free helplines for financial and mortgage advice
- + Guaranteed 20% off next renewal quotation for home insurance and 15% for car insurance
- + Discounted shopping at major retailers including Sainsbury's, ASDA, Debenhams, M&S, House of Fraser, Topshop, Argos, Boots and Homebase
- + Access to travel benefits such as discounts on hotels, rental cottages and airport parking
- + Discounted business services, including website creation, landline phones and business stationery
- + Cheaper gym membership at many national chains even if you are already a member

Take advantage of one benefit or take them all!

See the full range of benefits at www.rtpi.org.uk

Members will be able to access all these benefits through the RTPI website from 1 January 2012.