

BECOMING AN AFFILIATE OF THE RTPI

The Royal Town Planning Institute is the UK's leading planning body for spatial, sustainable, integrative and inclusive planning. It exists to advance the science and art of planning (including town and country and spatial planning) for the benefit of the public.

Through our membership, the RTPI constantly seeks to create areas and places in which people want to live and work. Our work involves:

- Promoting good planning;
- Developing and shaping policy affecting the built environment;
- Consistently raising the standards of the planning profession;
- Supporting our members through continued professional development; and
- Education and training for future planners.

If you have an interest in planning and want to be involved, you can become an Affiliate of the RTPI.

Who can become an Affiliate

Affiliates are Individuals who have an interest in spatial planning and support the aims and objectives of the RTPI. Affiliates belong to a non-professional class hence they do not require any professional planning qualification, experience or educational attainment. Applicants who are eligible for other classes of membership cannot apply to become an Affiliate.

Benefits

Affiliates receive the following benefits:

- Electronic copies of Planning magazine
- Access to CPD training (regional and national) at RTPI member rates
- Access to RTPI website including any 'member only' resources
- Access to RTPI social events at member rates
- The ability to pay subscriptions in instalments
- Access to Planners in the Workplace support
- Access to member forums and CPD on RTPI Learn
- The ability to join RTPI Networks

Affiliates cannot use post-nominal distinctions or vote in corporate elections.
