

RTPI

mediation of space · making of place

Politicians in Planning Network Conference: Places Need Vision ... creative approaches to planning for Councillors

Saturday 21st June

The Teacher Building, 14 St Enoch Square, Glasgow G1 4DB

Final Programme

Laphroaig Theatre

10 am WELCOME and introduction to the RTPI by Roger Kelly, Convener RTPI in Scotland and Chair of the Conference

WELCOME to Glasgow by Cllr George Redmond, Convener Planning Applications Committee

10.15 The vision – the National Planning Framework for Scotland

Duncan McNeil MSP, Convener of the Local Government and Communities Committee

11 am The local vision – the Members’ role in modernising planning

Trevor Roberts, Consultant Director TRA Ltd and Past RTPI President

Laphroaig Theatre	William’s Room	Adam’s Room
11.45 Key Issue: Quality Outcomes in Urban & Rural Planning Graham U’Ren, Board Director Built Environment Forum Scotland	11.45 Key Issue: Adjusting to the impact of Climate Change Maf Smith, Director of the Sustainable Development Commission Scotland	11.45 Key Issue: Engaging people - a necessity to improve delivery Petra Biberbach, Executive Director Planning Aid Scotland

12.30 LUNCH & Networking

Laphroaig Theatre	William’s Room 1	Adam’s Room
1.30 Case Study: Isle of Gigha Physical Masterplan and Design Guides Karen Anderson Anderson Bell + Christie	1.30 Case Study: The GRIP scenario tool for the engagement of partners and stakeholders George Eckton	1.30 Case Study: Business Engagement via BIDS Ian Davison Porter Project Director, Business Improvement Districts Scotland

2.15 Leadership: Planning Major Developments - Aspects of Delivery Richard Slipper, Director, Planning, Development & Regeneration, GVA Grimley	2.15 Leadership: How to roll out micro-generation of energy Dr Jeremy Raemaekers & Dr Caroline Brown School of the Built Environment Heriot-Watt University
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--

3 pm Laphroaig Theatre: Question Time Panel chaired by Roger Kelly
To include Karen Anderson (Anderson Bell + Christie), Professor Trevor Davies (University of Glasgow), Oonagh Gil (Chief Reporters Office), Vincent Waters (Association of Scottish Community Councils).

3.45 SUMMING UP and the issues for PIPA to be working on Roger Kelly and Cllr Mike Roberts, Chair of PIPA Core Group

4 pm Conference ends – Tea & Coffee available before that journey home.

PIPA – the RTPI Politicians in Planning Network – is most grateful for event sponsorship from:

