Delivering the green infrastructure of the growth locations

This RTPI East of England conference, sponsored by The Landscape Partnership Ltd, aims to discuss the value and delivery of green infrastructure to the growth locations.

The conference speakers will cover, amongst others, the following topics:

- Government and policy guidance
- Existing and planned strategies
- Processes and challenges associated with delivery
- Value of the green infrastructure?
- How can green infrastructure plans be used to facilitate and deliver sustainable growth?
- How to ensure strategic delivery
- How is a network of linked green infrastructure projects more than the sum of its parts?
- The importance of delivering projects at all scales local to sub-regional
- Approaches to landscape assessment and delivery of landscape structure
- Integration into master plans for major development sites
- The targeted use of Housing Growth Fund finance
- Economic benefits of green infrastructure
- Models of paying for green infrastructure
- Funding options and management models for green infrastructure

With case study examples from Cambridgeshire, Haven Gateway, Bedfordshire & Luton, and Thames Gateway South Essex.

This conference should be of interest to planners, policy makers, funding and delivery agencies and other disciplines with an interest in green infrastructure.
