DELIVERING HIGH QUALITY HOMES IN HIGH QUALITY PLACES FOR ALL

A One-Day Conference being held on WEDNESDAY 3 DECEMBER 2008

in

MARSTON VALE FOREST CENTRE, STATION ROAD, MARSTON MORETAINE, BEDFORD, MK43 0PR

Living in a decent home in a decent community is a basic requirement for all of us. Twelve months ago, house-building was booming and many planning commentators were concerned at the rapid pace of construction. A week is a long time in politics and a year is a very long time in the world of planning for the delivery of homes in the East of England. Commentators are now using the 'R' word and a lack of building is a common concern.

Why should you attend this conference? This is a one-day opportunity to share with your colleagues your concerns and aspirations for the delivery of homes. Furthermore, it will help you gain an understanding of the varied perspectives that different organisations have of the challenge before us all.

What are the benefits of attending? This conference will give you:

- An insight from practitioners in the field of delivering homes;
- Up-to-date knowledge of the issues;
- Information on emerging strategies;
- Different ideas to help you achieve high quality homes in high quality places for your local community or clients.

Who should attend? House-builders/developers, investors, planners engaged in policy and development control, planning consultants, and anyone interested in delivering high quality homes in a place to be proud of.
