

PLANNING FOR COMMERCE

FRIDAY 19TH MARCH 2010

The Innovation Centre, University of Exeter, Exeter

The pace of the economic downturn has had a profound impact upon town centres, retail centres, business parks and industrial estates. The availability of local employment is clearly at the fore, but the cumulative impact upon vitality and sense of place can be equally marked. The vulnerability of some areas has been exposed, but it has also thrown up new opportunities to review the function of our commercial centres. Our guest speakers will explore how PPS4 and PPS6 will impact on regeneration and rejuvenation, and consider the case for flexibility, invention and innovation.

Confirmed Speakers Include:

- (1) Tim Jones, Devon & Cornwall Business Council
- (2) Phil Wade, Summerfield Developments
- (3) Richard Wilson, Purbeck District Council
- (4) Nick Rawlings and Jemma Cam, CgMs Consulting
