

Publication dates and themes for RTPI in Scotland's journal Scottish Planner in 2010

Issue of Scottish Planner and proposed theme for features	Publication date 2010
133 – February: Marine and Coastal	Friday 26 th February
134 – April: Resources for Planning and Delivering Development	Friday 23rd April
135 – June: Retailing and Town Centres	Friday 25th June
136 – August: Planning Reform One Year on	Friday 27 th August
137 – October: Community Involvement/Engagement	Friday 22nd October
138 – December: Energy	Friday 10 th December

Contributions to Scottish Planner...

Proposals for articles are very welcome from Members and from others on planning and related issues; please see the themes above on which feature articles will be based. Proposals should be agreed with RTPI in Scotland between 2 and 3 months in advance of the publication date. The copy deadline is usually just over 4 weeks in advance of the publication date, but can be checked when making a proposal.

Contributions are sought on/for:

- the theme for each issue
- planning reform, its implementation and related issues
- the News pages (smaller items of 100-300 words)
- opinion pieces - may also be included although space is limited.

Scottish Planner online: There are also further opportunities to publish a range of articles and reports on the Scottish Planner Extra web-pages – which are getting an increasing number of hits.

Advertising and inserts within Scottish Planner – to find out more contact us below.

Contacts:

Veronica Burbridge (Editor): veronica.burbridge@rtpi.org.uk

James Henderson: james.henderson@rtpi.org.uk

Dec 2009