

RURAL PLANNING

WEDNESDAY 8TH SEPTEMBER 2010

Dartington Hall, Totnes, Devon

With huge emphasis placed on development associated with the South West's urban areas – do we have a positive national and regional vision for sustaining rural areas? Our guest speakers will endeavour to answer this question and look at local solutions. With climate change at the heart of the profession, consideration will also be given to opportunities to deliver new forms of rural development – inspired by the granting of the LAMMAS development in Presseli, Wales.

Confirmed Speakers Include:

Pat Steward, Red C
Emma Rouse, Cranborne Chase and West Wilshire AONB
Stephen Hardy, Dorset CC
