

CLIMATE CHANGE –
Delivering Essential Waste, Energy & Flood Management Infrastructure
FRIDAY 15TH OCTOBER 2010
The Eden Project, St Austell

With the recent announcement of a geothermal renewable energy scheme, we are delighted that the Eden Project will play host to this conference. Our excellent range of guest speakers will bring you up to speed on the scale of the challenge, assessment methods, current best practice, technological innovation and design. We'll look at the drivers behind delivering new infrastructure and just what makes it so essential! With the IPC based in the SW Region, we will also seek an insight into how it is dealing with Nationally Significant Infrastructure Projects.

Confirmed Speakers Include:

Robert Asquith, New Earth Solutions
Richard Samphier, Atkins
Dan Nicholls, Cornwall Council
