

Date 2017	Event Title and Profile.	AIM	Learning Objectives After attending this event learners should have an improved understanding of:
5 Feb 2018	Development Management and Enforcement As many new Local Plans and Core Strategies move towards formal adoption the focus now turns to implementation. This seminar will explore the current issues and best practice associated with the development management process with a half-day session devoted to the issues relating specifically to enforcement.	To provide planners with the skills and knowledge they need by updating the best practice emerging from the development management process and enforcement.	Identify how the development management process delivers sustainable development; Recognise the importance of negotiation, communication and leadership in the development management process; Identify and implement the key aspects of best practice relating to enforcement.