

Planning for Water Management

Thursday 12th July, Sheffield Hallam University, City Campus

.....

Programme

- 9.30AM      Registration. Refreshments available
- 10.00AM      Introduction from the chair
Catherine Hammond, Sheffield Hallam University
- 10.10AM      Putting water higher up the planning agenda
Simon Doncaster, Environment agency and Sheffield Hallam University
- 10.45AM      Water law and what it means for planning
Esme Saynor and Helen Jackson, CMS Law
- 11.20.AM      Refreshments
- 11.45AM      Planning for flood risk management in the River Great Ouse catchment – addressing strategic scale growth and catchment scale water management challenges
Laura Kitson, Strategic Flood Risk Advisor, Environment Agency
- 12.20PM      Living with Water Partnership - building in water resilience in new development as standard
Rachel Glossop, Flood Risk Planning Manager, Hull City Council.
- 12.55PM      Q&A Panel session (with morning speakers)
- 13.10PM      Lunch
- 14.00PM      Achieving Urban Flood Resilience by removing the barriers to SuDS adoption and promoting collaborative practice
Tudorel Vilcan, Open University
- 14.35PM      Retrofitting multifunctional SuDS in Sheffield City Centre
Zac Tudor, Sheffield City Council
- 15.10PM      Q&A Panel session (with afternoon speakers)
- 15.25PM      Close of formal conference
- 15.30PM      Introduction of optional activities:
- Focus group the ways in which planners can add value to Sustainable Urban Drainage Systems
  - Self-guided tour of Sheffield City Centre looking at retrofit SUDS schemes