

BETH LAMBOURNE | PLANNER, PEGASUS GROUP CHAIR

BACKGROUND

I am the current Chair of RTPI London Young Planners Committee. I am also the Junior Vice Chair of the RTPI London Regional Members Board and a member of the RTPI London Regional Activities Committee. Before moving to London in March 2019 I was a member of the RTPI West Midlands Young Planners Committee (March 2016 - January 2019). I started working at Turley in their Birmingham office on a part-time basis in October 2015, going full time once I completed my masters degree. I relocated to London in March 2019 where I spent 10 months at Quod before moving to Pegasus Group in December 2019. I am part of a team which works across the country in a multitude of sectors, including residential, higher education, and retail – and I have a particular interest in the industrial and business space sector.

EDUCATION & CHARTERSHIP

- Chartered member of the RTPI
- MSc Urban and Regional Planning University of Birmingham (2013 – 2016)
- BA Human Geography, University of Leicester (2010 – 2013)

CLEO CHE TSUN AU | ASSISTANT CONSULTANT, SYSTRA SECRETARY

BACKGROUND

I am the current Secretary for the RTPI London Young Planners Committee. I was also the “Tech and Planning” Panel Speaker at the RTPI Planning Convention 2018. I was also a member of the RTPI Young Planners Cymru Social Media Team (2015 – 2018) and part of the Wales Planning Conference Concierge Team 2018.

Working in Systra’s South Transport Planning division, my main responsibilities involve analysing the impacts of new transport schemes through modelling for transport assessments in the local plan drafting process. Before joining Systra, I studied a masters in Smart Cities and Urban Analytics at UCL. As part of my masters, I partnered with the GLA to create a machine learning algorithm to predict which characteristics affect the build-out of residential planning applications in London.

EDUCATION & CHARTERSHIP

- Licentiate Member, RTPI and Member, Transport Planning Society
- MSc Smart Cities and Urban Analytics (RTPI Pathway), University College London (2018 – 2019)
