

RTPI Learning Partner Award 2020

The RTPI Learning Partner Award recognises excellence in learning and development for planners by employers who have been accredited as RTPI Learning Partners.

How to enter:

- Complete the entry form addressing all of the judging criteria
- Send an electronic copy of your entry to learning.partners@rtpi.org.uk using the subject line "Learning Partner Award 2020"

All entries must be received by 10th September 16:00

Judging Criteria

All initiatives submitted for this award should demonstrate excellent learning and development for planners and the wider profession that has taken place during the previous 24 months.

Submitted entries must be a maximum of 800 words and may include images. You should address the following criteria:

- The original aim of the initiative
- How has the initiative added value for the individual employees?
- How has the initiative added value for the profession?
- How did you ensure there was fair and equal access to the initiative?

Eligibility

To be eligible your organisations must be a RTPI Learning Partner. For more information about becoming an RTPI Learning Partner www.rtpi.org.uk/learningpartners

If you are not currently an RTPI Learning Partner, you can prepare an application for the RTPI Learning Partner Award as long as you become an RTPI Learning Partner by 10th September 2020.

Judging

The judging process will take place in September 2020. Commendations may be given in addition to the winner.
